February 19, 2002

The Honorable Bill Bradbury
Secretary of State
136 State Capitol
Salem, OR 97301

Dear Secretary Bradbury:

I am returning herewith Senate Bill 5574, unsigned and disapproved.

This bill disappropriates General Fund and Lottery Funds from State agency budgets to partially address State government's revenue shortfall.

While I agree with many of the proposed reductions contained in this bill, I disagree with legislative process used to craft these reductions. I also disagree with the level and types of reductions proposed in Senate Bill 5574.

Prior to the Special Session, I outlined two principles that I expected the Special Session to follow in crafting a solution to the current budget deficit:

- (1) Provide for public process to debate proposed revenue and expenditure options during the Special Session. There was no such opportunity for Oregonians to debate the program reductions in Senate Bill 5574.
- (2) Include long-term structural change in any proposed solution to address the fact that the current budget is not sustainable into the future based on the projected revenue forecast. Senate Bill 5574 coupled with other legislation does not adequately address this long-term structural problem in state spending.

Finally, I disagree fundamentally with many of the program reduction choices contained in Senate Bill 5574. For instance, this bill cuts funding to undergraduate instruction at Oregon's universities and reduces our investments in human resource prevention programs. Other policy choices should be considered.

Sincerely,
John A. Kitzhaber, M.D.

February 19, 2002

The Honorable Bill Bradbury
Secretary of State
136 State Capitol
Salem, OR 97301

Dear Secretary Bradbury:

I am returning Senate Bill 1008 unsigned and disapproved.

This bill attempts to treat dental services differently than all other health care and preventive services prioritized by the Oregon Health Plan. The strength of the Oregon Health Plan is that it evaluates all health services with the same process and then purchases those services in priority order with the funds that are available. By treating dental care differently, this bill breaks the discipline of the priority setting process and erodes the integrity of the Oregon Health Plan.

The bill also creates the unacceptable precedent of placing in statute a benefit package and co-payments. This will make it impossible for us to alter the dental benefit for OHP patients should such an alteration be required for purposes of obtaining a waiver, rebalancing the DHS budget, or because new research makes such a change desirable.

Finally, the bill omitted the $500 per year limit on services included in the dental benefit recommended by the Health Services Commission. This not only illustrates the folly of placing benefits in statute but it nullifies a large portion of the savings gained by the changes contained in the waiver. As a result, the bill would increase the cost of the new Oregon Health Plan waiver.

Sincerely,
John A. Kitzhaber, M.D.

March 12, 2002

The Honorable Bill Bradbury
 Secretary of State
 136 State Capitol
 Salem, OR 97301

Dear Secretary Bradbury:

I am returning herewith Enrolled Senate Bill 5575 (2002 Second Special Session), with the following line items in Section 1 (3) Human Services, Medical Assistance Programs (page 4), unsigned and disapproved:

General Fund ch. 892	1(2)(c)	-60,593,030
Other funds	ch. 892 5 +67,500,000
	ch. 894 2 +67,500,000

The General Fund ch. 892 1(2)(c) line item reduces the General Fund appropriation for the Medical Assistance Program by $60,593,030.

The Other Funds line items of ch. 892 5 +67,500,000 and ch. 894 2 +67,500,000 replace the General Fund with $67,500,000 of National Tobacco Settlement proceeds from the Health Care Trust Fund.

This action spends almost the entire National Tobacco Settlement account and effectively depletes the Health Care Trust Fund. Further, coupled with the $220 million Education Endowment Fund raid and use of other one-time revenue, the legislative budget plan uses a staggering half billion dollars in one-time revenues, which will virtually spend every dime of the state's reserves and will create a huge financial cliff for the next biennium.

This entire budget deserves to be vetoed, but because of the state's serious cash flow problem, I will veto only the $60,593,030 disappropriation of the Medical Assistance Program General Fund and the $67.5 million in National Tobacco Settlement proceeds in SB 5575 and reluctantly let the rest of the bill become law.

Sincerely,
 John A. Kitzhaber, M.D.

August 7, 2002

The Honorable Bill Bradbury
Secretary of State
136 State Capitol
Salem, OR 97301

Dear Secretary Bradbury:

I am returning herewith Enrolled Senate Bill 1022 (2002 Third Special Session), unsigned and disapproved. While recognizing the potential impact on K-12 schools, community colleges and those they serve, I cannot in good conscience allow this bill to become law. It represents unsound fiscal policy, creating an unsustainable funding mechanism for our public schools.

SB 1022 authorizes an accounting maneuver which moves the due date of the final state payment to primary and secondary schools and community colleges from the current biennium into the next. This allows the state to realize a one-time "paper gain" of $260 million by deferring the responsibility to make this payment to the next legislature. In other words, the bill shifts the due date, but not the money with which to actually make the payment.

This maneuver is not materially different from a corporation taking future projected profits and showing them on today's books in order to give the shareholders an inflated picture of the financial health of the business. This bill would likewise be giving Oregonians - the shareholders of our system of public education - an inflated and inaccurate view of the true fiscal health of our schools.

Furthermore, SB 1022 does nothing to ensure that the $260 million will be available for public education in the 2003-05 biennium since the current Legislature cannot obligate the next Legislature.

As we look towards the 2003-05 biennium, it is clear that difficult choices will need to be made. With projections of a gap between projected expenditures and available revenues of more than $1.2 billion, it is time for the Legislature to make choices that not only address the shortfall this biennium but begin to address the problem for the next biennium as well.

It's time to be accountable.

For these reasons, I am returning SB 1022 unsigned and disapproved.

Sincerely,
John A. Kitzhaber, M.D.

HB 5100 A-Eng. - Rereferred to Special Committee on Budget Solutions by voice vote on motion of Harper.

Yih requested the following written explanation of vote be entered into the journal:

“Mr. President,

I rise to object to HB 5100 for two reasons:

1. The proposed reductions in this bill cut into priority programs such as pre-kindergarten, early intervention, talented and gifted, alcohol and drug abuse treatment, mental health services, senior and disabled services, developmentally disabled services, corrections, the Oregon Youth Authority, state police, and the list goes on.

We are elected to provide quality services to the citizens of our state; even during a budget crisis we should be maintaining the high quality of our services and programs.

2. My other objection is that we are not cutting our lower priority and non-effective programs deep enough so that the savings can be used to preserve our essential services. If we have a $482 million shortfall, we need to cut our budget to meet that shortfall.

The point is, we need to eliminate the non-essential services, cut administrative costs, freeze salaries and hiring, cut bureaucracies and red tape, and not start new programs. Families and businesses cut low priority items first in order to meet any decline in revenue. We need to do the same. Let us work together to develop a list of low priority or non-effective programs, and reduce bureaucracy and administrative costs. The economic recovery will happen sooner if we make our agencies efficient and keep our taxes low. I urge a no vote on this bill.”

LEGISLATURE'S
CALL FOR SPECIAL SESSION
in 2004

The Senate of the 72nd Legislative Assembly was tied 15-15. Out of this session, a joint resolution was adopted setting a requirement for the members of the legislature to exercise their authority of the Oregon Constitution, Art. IV, sec. 10a, and thereby calling itself into special session during the interim period of 2004 to address tax reform. The following is a compilation of the records that the Senate used in its process for determination of the legislature convening itself into a special session in June 2004.

Judy Hall
Secretary of the Senate

The following resolution was adopted by the Senate on August 26, 2003:

72nd OREGON LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

2003 Regular Session

Enrolled House Joint Resolution 42

Sponsored by Representative PATRIDGE, Senators DEVLIN, SCHRADER

Whereas section 10a, Article IV of the Oregon Constitution, authorizes the Legislative Assembly in the event of an emergency to convene in special session; and

Whereas the loss of Oregonians' jobs and reduction in revenues available to adequately fund vital public services, such as education, health care and public safety, constitute an emergency; and

Whereas this state's reliance on revenues from income taxes exacerbates reductions in state revenues during periods of economic decline; and

Whereas section 2, Article IX of the Oregon Constitution, requires the Legislative Assembly to provide for the raising of revenue sufficient to defray the expenses of the state; and

Whereas this state's current tax structure impedes job creation and business investment and could be restructured to improve Oregon's economic future and still produce adequate and stable revenues to support essential state services; and

Whereas section 10a, Article IV of the Oregon Constitution, requires the presiding officers to convene the Legislative Assembly in special session within five days after receipt of a written request for the session by a majority of the members of each chamber; and

Whereas section 11, Article IV of the Oregon Constitution, authorizes the Legislative Assembly to determine rules of proceeding; and

Whereas the Legislative Assembly may prescribe procedures for the Legislative Assembly's operation that differ from procedures prescribed by law; and

Whereas the requirement in section 10a, Article IV of the Oregon Constitution, of a written request for the convening of a special session serves as a means of verifying a member's intent; and

Whereas a member's public vote in favor of this joint resolution, when recorded in the journal of the chamber constitutes the member's written request for the convening of a special session; and

Whereas the work of the Legislative Assembly in special session will be advanced by the consideration of tax reform proposals by a joint interim committee; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

(1) There is created the Joint Interim Committee on Tax Reform, consisting of 12 members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and eight members of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate.

(2) The purpose of the committee is to study and make recommendations on improvements to the state's tax system.

(3) By May 31, 2004, the committee shall develop legislation for recommendation to the Seventy-second Legislative Assembly. The committee may introduce proposed measures in a special session of the Seventy-second Legislative Assembly and pre-session file proposed measures for consideration by the Seventy-third Legislative Assembly in the manner provided in ORS 171.130 for interim committees. A proposed measure recommended by official action of the committee must indicate that the proposed measure is introduced at the request of the committee.

(4) The committee may take action only by the affirmative vote of a majority of members of each chamber on the committee.

(5) To the extent that there is a conflict between the provisions of this joint resolution and ORS 171.605 to 171.635, the provisions of this joint resolution supersede ORS 171.605 to 171.635.

(6) The Legislative Revenue Office shall provide staff support to the committee.

(7) This joint resolution prescribes an alternative procedure to ORS 171.015 for the Seventy-second Legislative Assembly's convening in special session.

(8) When the presiding officers have signed this joint resolution, the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall provide the Legislative Administrator with two true copies of the joint resolution.

(9) The Legislative Administrator shall deliver the true copies of the joint resolution to the chief legislative officers on May 31, 2004. Delivery to the chief legislative officers constitutes delivery to the presiding officers.

(10) Within five days after receiving the true copies of the joint resolution through the chief legislative officers, the presiding officers shall convene the Seventy-second Legislative Assembly in special session.

Senate President Peter Courtney sent the following letter to all members of the Senate by certified mail dated May 13, 2004:

Dear Senator _____:

Since the passage of House Joint Resolution 42 at the end of the 2003 legislative session, our Joint Interim Committee on Tax Reform has worked hard to develop bipartisan bicameral legislation for a special session this June. In addition to four long meetings at the Capitol, the committee conducted field hearings in Newport, Eugene, Beaverton, Portland, Medford, Baker City, Pendleton, and Redmond. During its meetings around the state—attended by over 600 members of the public—the committee heard testimony from nearly 200 individuals.

During its meetings back in Salem, the committee has considered and debated numerous proposals. However, the committee has not reached sufficient consensus to approve draft legislation for a special session as called for in HJR 42.

We all agree that some form of substantial tax reform is necessary. I am encouraged by the honorable and important work of Co-Chairs Senator Ryan Deckert and Representative Tom Butler along with their colleagues on the committee. I have asked our Senate Interim Committee on Revenue to build upon the public outreach and progress achieved thus far, so that we may begin the 2005 regular legislative session with meaningful tax reform legislation before us.

House Joint Resolution 42

Article IV, Section 10a, of the Oregon Constitution provides that:

In the event of an emergency the Legislative Assembly shall be convened by the presiding officers of both Houses at the Capitol of the State at times other than required by section 10 of this Article upon the written request of the majority of the members of each House to commence within five days after receipt of the minimum requisite number of requests.

ORS 171.015 specifies the usual balloting procedure by which members may submit a "written request" for a special legislative session. We followed that procedure when we convened the September 2002 special session.

HJR 42 purports to prescribe a one-time alternative method. Pursuant to HJR 42, the Legislative Administrator will deliver official copies of the resolution to the Speaker of the House and the Senate President on May 31, 2004. In this manner, HJR 42 might function as a means by which majorities in each chamber submit their "written request" for a special session, to be convened within five days thereafter.

Legislative Counsel advises that HJR 42 legally functions like a petition, whereby the 21 Senators and 39 Representatives voting "aye" added their name to a "written request" for a special session. Until that petition is finally delivered to the Speaker and the President on May 31, 2004, counsel advises us that individual members who voted "aye" may withdraw their request for the special session and members who voted "no" may add their request for the special session by notifying the Secretary of the Senate (or for House members, the Chief Clerk of the House) in writing. I have enclosed Legislative Counsel's most recent opinion letter, which provides more detailed explanation.

Legislative Counsel also drafted the enclosed form, which you may use prior to May 31, 2004, if you wish to withdraw or add your written request for the special legislative session contemplated in HJR 42.

Legislative Counsel has raised additional constitutional concerns about the validity of HJR 42 as a means of convening a special session—even if on May 31, 2004, there is still a majority of members from each chamber requesting the special session. Counsel advises that we not conduct business in a special session unless we additionally perform the ORS 171.015 balloting procedure and achieve the required majorities.

Conclusion

I intend to convene the special session only if at least 16 members of the Senate maintain or add their written request for the session through HJR 42.

I am asking you to clarify your own intent as a member of the Oregon State Senate. Please submit the enclosed form to the Secretary of the Senate only if you wish to add or withdraw your request for the HJR 42 Special Session. The Secretary of the Senate must receive the form via fax, mail, or hand delivery, no later than Friday, May 28, 2004.

Thank you.

Respectfully,
Peter Courtney
President of the Senate

Sample form to Senators who wish to withdraw their requests:

I requested the convening of an emergency session of the Legislative Assembly by voting in favor of House Joint Resolution 42.

I believe that the emergency that appeared to exist at the time of the vote on House Joint Resolution 42 no longer exists and will not exist at the time of the emergency session for which House Joint Resolution 42 provides. Therefore, I am by this letter withdrawing my request for the emergency session.

Please record this action in the journal at the earliest appropriate opportunity.

Sample form to Senators who wish to add their requests:

I did not request the convening of the emergency session of the Legislative Assembly called by House Joint Resolution 42.

I believe that an emergency now exists and will exist at the time of the emergency session for which House Joint Resolution 42 provides. Therefore, I am by this letter requesting the emergency session.

Please record this action in the journal at the earliest appropriate opportunity."

Re: Withdrawal of Requests for Special Session
Dear President Courtney:

This letter responds to your request for our views on whether a member of the Senate who requested the special session by voting in favor of HJR 42 may withdraw the member’s request, by submitting a written notice to the Secretary of the Senate or the President of the Senate, withdraw the member’s request for the special session.

We think so, yes.

1. Summary

There is no clear answer to the question, but we conclude that, more likely than not, a member who requested the special session by voting in favor of HJR 42 may withdraw the member’s request. If, on May 31, 2004, fewer than 16 members have requested the special session, then the Senate cannot convene.

The only person who could sue to get a court to force the Senate to convene would be a member who had voted for HJR 42 and had not withdrawn the request. The member would more likely than not lose the lawsuit; the court should find the withdrawals effective and not order the Senate to convene.

2. Discussion

A general legal principle is that a person may withdraw a document that makes a request of someone else (an application, an offer, a declaration of candidacy, etc.) before the other person takes action on the request. The Legislative Assembly, however, may change that general principle. In the statutory balloting procedure for legislators to call a special session, ORS 171.015 (4), the Legislative Assembly made a member’s written request “irrevocable” when delivered.

Unlike the provisions in ORS 171.015, there is nothing in HJR 42 that alters the general principle. Because you will not receive the requests under HJR 42 until May 31, 2004, a member ought to be able to withdraw the member’s request by that date; conversely, a member who originally voted against HJR 42 ought to be able to make a request for the June special session.

(By member, we mean the representative of a Senate district, not the particular person who held the seat when the Senate voted on HJR 42. In other words, Senator John Lim counts as Senator John Minnis; Senator Floyd Prozanski counts as Senator Tony Corcoran. This does not mean, however, that a new member generally has the authority to change a predecessor’s vote.)

The principal concern we have with members’ changing requests is that the Senate has adopted rules that govern when a member may change the member’s vote and when the Senate may reconsider the Senate’s vote, and members’ withdrawing (or making) the request contained in HJR 42 would not follow these rules. On balance, we believe that withdrawing (or making) a request would not be the same kind of action as changing or reconsidering a vote. In stating that “a member’s public vote in favor of this joint resolution . . . constitutes the member’s written request,” HJR 42 equated the vote with the requirement in section 10a, Article IV of the Oregon Constitution, for a “written request.”

Please let us know if you need additional information.

Dear President Courtney:

By this letter I am notifying you that the Senate is in receipt of HJR 42 as required by the resolution. I accepted the resolution today from the Legislative Administrator, Dave Henderson, on behalf of the Senate.

On May 28, 2004 at 5:00 p.m., the following letter was transmitted to the President of the Senate by the Secretary of the Senate certifying the results of the polling process:

The Honorable Peter Courtney
President of the Senate
S203 State Capitol
Salem, OR 97301
Subject: Special Session – HJR 42

Dear President Courtney:

Pursuant to your letter to all Senate members dated May 13, 2004 in which you asked each member to clarify his/her own intent on the subject of the legislature calling itself into a special session in June, 2004, I am forwarding the results of that polling.

I hereby certify that I am in receipt of 15 letters from the following Senators withdrawing their requests for a special session in accordance with HJR 42.

Senator Kate Brown	Senator Rick Metsger
Senator Ginny Burdick	Senator Bill Morrisette
Senator Margaret Carter	Senator Floyd Prozanski
Senator Peter Courtney	Senator Charlie Ringo
Senator Ryan Deckert	Senator Kurt Schrader
Senator Richard Devlin	Senator Frank Shields
Senator Joan Dukes	Senator Vicki Walker
Senator Avel Gordly

I am also certifying that I am in receipt of 7 letters from the following Senators requesting a special session in accordance with HJR 42.

Senator Jason Atkinson	Senator Steve Harper
Senator Roger Beyer	Senator John Lim
Senator Ted Ferrioli	Senator Ken Messerle
Senator Bill Fisher

Article IV, sec. 10a, Oregon Constitution requires “the written request of the majority of the members of each House” to convene in special session. I now report to you, at 5:00 p.m. May 28, that the requisite number (16) of written requests for the Senate to convene in special session has not been attained. As a result of the polling process plus the original requests (HJR 42), there are a total of 13 requests asking for a special session.

Judy Hall

Secretary of the Senate

(Note: A total of 22 letters were received. The remaining 8, whose original requests were in accordance with HJR 42, remained unchanged.)

Senator Sal Esquivel	Senator Bruce Starr
Senator Gary George	Senator Charles Starr
Senator Frank Morse	Senator Ben Westlund

Senator David Nelson

Senator Jackie Winters

The following are from Senators who wish to explain their addition or withdrawal of their requests (Senators are in alphabetical order):

From Senator Richard Devlin:

“SPECIAL SESSION DRIVEN BY POLITICS WOULD FAIL

“Without agreement, the session would only further divide Oregonians.

“On August 27, 2003, the day after the Senate had finished the longest legislative session in Oregon history, I was on the House floor trying to insure passage of HJR42. This resolution called for a joint committee to be formed to look broadly at the issues of tax reform and stabilizing funding for schools, human services, and public safety. The committee would potentially forward bills for consideration in a possible special session in June 2004 or in the regular session in 2005. I was one of the sponsors of this bill, and I believed then, as I do now, that we must address the stability of our system and spending reform. The majority of the legislature agreed, and the measure passed with a comfortable margin.

“Bipartisan agreements on the budget and revenue measure were cornerstones to the 2003 session. By referendum, the revenue measure became ballot Measure 30. It was decided that we would delay the work of the committee until the Measure 30 election in February. Some may have seen this decision as shortsighted, but given recent attempts to interject partisan politics into this discussion, the decision proved very wise. The committee then went on the road to hear from Oregonians in seven well-attended hearings from Medford to Pendleton.

“When these first rounds of hearings were complete, I, like many committee members, came to three conclusions: First, we cannot address the revenue side of reform without looking at the expenditure side (although Oregon already has a spending limit as well as the Kicker and the School Stability Fund). Second, Oregonians want to see our tax system reformed. And third, there is no consensus among Oregonians on how to do it. It became clear to the committee that the task before us was far more complex than many had imagined. We met two more times to discuss two specific reform proposals and three spending limit/reform proposals. One of these spending limit proposals was the “Bucket Plan.

“The Bucket Plan reminds me of an old axiom: ‘For every complex problem, there is a simple, wrong answer.’ Its basic premise is quite persuasive, but inaccurate.

“The advocates maintained that if the state had held spending increases to 5 percent per year since 1993 we would have been able to “adequately” fund education, human services and public safety, build a rainy day fund, and still return large sums of money back to Oregonians.

“Perhaps, as the saying goes, you can fool some of the people all of the time, but neither I, nor the other committee members, were fooled. The proponents failed to account for the enormous impact on the budget of ballot measures passed by the voters – specifically Measure 5 and Measure 11. For example, once the final $1 billion Measure 5 property tax shift is factored into the 1995 budget and beyond, the Bucket Plan would have had no reserve and there would have been no kicker. In addition, Measure 11, which established mandatory minimum sentences, caused expenditures that would have exceeded the 5% growth factor by more than a billion dollars. This shortage of funds could have left hundreds of violent criminals roaming our streets.

“The plan also didn’t identify what the base level of funding should be. If you look at K-12 funding after the downturn in the economy and the failure of Measure 30, we are funding schools at slightly above their 1999 level. What should the base level of funding be for K-12? Shouldn’t we at least review the needs of our schools and have a public discussion before we set an arbitrary limit on funding?

“Although the Bucket Plan is badly flawed – and although we already have a spending limit law – a properly crafted plan might have some benefits. But at a minimum, it should have mechanisms to adjust the cap for the impact of voter approved initiatives, changes in federal mandates, and court decisions. The proponents’ answer to these issues is to require a super majority to adjust the limit. However, I’m not willing to vest so much power in a minority of legislators who can block such attempts.

“When the reform committee finished its last meeting, two paths lay ahead of us. One was to continue our work in preparation for the 2005 session, which I, and many others, preferred. We were making some progress, and it is possible that we would have been able to agree on some reforms to submit to the Legislature next year. The other path, the one apparently chosen by the House leadership, was to split the committee so that the House portion of the committee could send out the poorly crafted and incomplete Bucket Plan to its deserved failure on the House floor.

“The Bucket Plan is a constitutional revision that requires a 2/3 majority to pass. The House Republican Leadership knows that it has neither 40 votes in the House nor 20 in the Senate for it. But apparently good public policy and adequate funding for schools are not the goals of the House leadership-politics is. (How better to start the November election cycle but by using a publicly-funded special session to put some legislators on record as “not favoring” a spending limit...even if you know that the bill is flawed?)

“Perhaps when the dust settles the House Leadership will remember an often cited but little remembered President, Rutherford B. Hayes, who said, “He serves the party best who serves his country best.” The right path – the path that serves Oregon best – is to continue our work in the committee and not waste taxpayers’ money in another special session.”

From Senator Bill Fisher:

“I did not request the convening of the special session of the legislative Assembly called by House Joint Resolution 42.

“I believe HJR 42 was passed into law and, even though I did not vote for it, the process should be honored by calling a special session as provided for in the law. I am not convinced that a law can or should be invalidated by the signatures of 16 senators without being subjected to the proper legislative process.”

From Senator Avel Gordly:

“I believe that the emergency still exists, however, the Joint Interim Committee on Tax Reform” has not reached sufficient consensus to approve draft legislation for a special session as called for in HJR 42.”

From Senator John Lim:

“I do not believe an emergency session of the Legislative Assembly exists at this time. However, according to HJR 42, I am calling for a Special Session for the proposal of Tax Reform. This note is part of this letter.”

From Senator Bill Morrisette:

“I am eager to attend an emergency special session of the Legislature once the Joint Interim Committee on Tax Reform presents a consensus plan for approval.”

From Senator Floyd Prozanski:

“Due to the failure of the Joint Interim Committee on Tax Reform to timely complete its work and recommend any tax reform measures to the 72nd Legislative Assembly, I am forced to withdraw my request for a special session within five days of May 31, 2004.

“When I voted for HJR 42B, I had great expectations that the committee would be able to advance legislation that would improve Oregon’s current tax system. Unfortunately, that did not occur. Accordingly, I cannot in good faith ask taxpayers to pay thousands of dollars for a special session that has no focus or actual tax reform plan to consider.

“The Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate should authorize the Joint Interim Committee on Tax Reform to continue its work during the interim. This would allow the 73rd Legislative Assembly to address the current imbalance in Oregon’s tax system.”

From Senator Charlie Ringo:

“I am also withdrawing my request for a special session because HJR 42 was designed solely to address tax reform, and unfortunately, there is no consensus on tax reform.”

From Senator Kurt Schrader:

“I am by this letter withdrawing my request for the emergency session, since no consensus on a tax reform proposal has been achieved in time for us to hold a productive June session. I look forward to continuing the discussion on tax reform, not budget reform (the province of Ways & Means) by our tax reform committee during the remainder of the interim.”

From Senator Vicki Walker:

“While I appreciate the hard work of the Joint Interim Committee on Tax Reform, it has become apparent that the committee has not reached a consensus on a proposal, or set of proposals, to offer to the Legislative Assembly in special session as required by HJR 42. It, therefore, would be a colossal waste of tax payer funds and legislative time to come into special session.

“It is my sincere hope that the 2005 Legislative Assembly can continue the good work of the Joint Interim Committee on Tax Reform to address the failures of Oregon’s current tax system to provide fairness and stability.”

Oregon State SenateIN MEMORIAM*Garrett Lee Smith, 1981-2003

Whereas Garrett Lee Smith, son of United States Senator Gordon and Sharon Smith, took his life September 8, 2003; and

Whereas Gordon Smith's service as a member and as the President of the Oregon State Senate allowed many who serve in this chamber to have had their lives enriched by Garrett Lee Smith's generous spirit and broad smile; and

Whereas Garrett Lee Smith, through Herculean effort, overcame learning disabilities to become an Eagle Scout and earn his high school diploma; and

Whereas Garrett Lee Smith fulfilled a lifetime goal by qualifying to serve a two-year mission to England for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; and

Whereas Garrett Lee Smith's tragic death was brought on by clinical depression and bipolar disorder, a fact which, when made known to the public by his parents' courageous candor, encouraged many young persons to seek help for their own mental health problems; and

Whereas the struggles of Garrett Lee Smith and others like him have inspired the 108th Congress of the United States to take up the issue of preventing youth suicide through the Youth Suicide Early Intervention and Prevention Expansion Act of 2004; and

Whereas, in memory of Garrett Lee Smith, and to provide support for persons, especially children, who face mental health challenges, Gordon and Sharon Smith have established the Garrett Smith Memorial Fund under the auspices of St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton; and

Whereas those who knew Garrett Lee Smith will remember most the efforts - efforts, in his father's words, "as big as his heart" - with which he struggled to overcome the obstacles that life placed in front of him; now, therefore,

Be it Resolved by the Senate in Session Assembled under Section 4, Article III of the Oregon Constitution:

That we, the members of the Senate of the Seventy-second Legislative Assembly, mourn the passing of Garrett Lee Smith, extend our condolences to his family, and pay tribute to a young person who, through the effort of his struggles, inspired and inspires others; and be it further

Resolved, That, as an expression of the esteem in which we hold the memory of Garrett Lee Smith, a copy of this commemoration be presented to his parents, United States Senator Gordon and Sharon Smith.

The memorial was carried by Gordly and Nelson. On adoption of memorial the vote was: Ayes, 29; excused, 1—Schrader. Memorial adopted.

Oregon State Senate IN MEMORIAM

Former President Ronald Wilson Reagan, 1911-2004

Whereas it was with deep regret and profound sorrow that the members of the Senate of the Seventy-second Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon learned of the death of Ronald Wilson Reagan, the fortieth President of the United States, on June 5, 2004, at the age of 93; and

Whereas Ronald Wilson Reagan, a person of humble background, worked throughout his life advancing freedom and serving the public good, having been employed as an entertainer, union leader, corporate spokesperson, Governor of California and President of the United States; and

Whereas Ronald Wilson Reagan was born in the farming town of Tampico, Illinois, on February 6, 1911; and

Whereas Ronald Wilson Reagan's job as a radio sports announcer after graduation from Eureka College started him in public life; and

Whereas Ronald Wilson Reagan's film career spanned more than 50 films, in which he often played the hero, including the legendary Notre Dame halfback, George Gipp in the 1940 film "Knut Rockne, All American," from which he obtained the nickname "The Gipper"; and

Whereas Ronald Wilson Reagan held the presidency of the Screen Actors Guild for six terms; and

Whereas Ronald Wilson Reagan served the people of the State of California as their Governor for eight years; and

Whereas Ronald Wilson Reagan served with honor and distinction for two terms as President of the United States; and

Whereas in the election for his second term as President of the United States, Ronald Wilson Reagan was victorious in 49 of the 50 states, receiving an unprecedented total of nearly three-fifths of the popular vote; and

Whereas throughout his years as President, Ronald Wilson Reagan displayed consistent optimism and self-confidence that endeared him to millions, and even when personal danger touched him, as with the assassination attempt in 1981 that left him wounded, he was upbeat and reassuring, bolstering the country through his graceful, speedy and good-humored recovery; and

Whereas Ronald Wilson Reagan was an excellent orator, delivering vocal challenges for democratic reform throughout the world, including one of his most important and memorable speeches in June 1987 at the Brandenburg Gate, during which he demanded: "General Secretary Gorbachev, if you seek peace, if you seek prosperity for the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, if you seek liberalization: Come here to this gate! Mr. Gorbachev, open this gate! Mr. Gorbachev, tear down this wall!"; and

Whereas Americans will remember "The Great Communicator" for his optimism, humor, modesty and patriotism, for hastening the end of the Cold War and for strengthening Americans' pride in their country; and

Whereas in 1994 Ronald Wilson Reagan disclosed that he suffered from Alzheimer's disease, a disclosure he hoped would bring greater awareness of the condition and a clearer understanding of how the condition affects individuals and families; and

Whereas although the death of Ronald Wilson Reagan has created a deep void in the nation that he loved, his legacy will live on; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate in Session Assembled under Section 4, Article III of the Oregon Constitution:

That we, the members of the Senate of the Seventy-second Legislative Assembly, extend sincere and heartfelt condolences upon the death of former President Ronald Wilson Reagan.

Memorial carried by President Courtney. On adoption of memorial the vote was: Ayes, 23; excused, 4 - Brown, Dukes, Ringo, Walker; attending legislative business, 3 - Carter, Nelson, Schrader. Memorial adopted.

Gordly requested the following explanation of vote be entered into the journal:

"While I support the Resolution honoring the passing of President Reagan, I would like the record to reflect in the form of a vote explanation, a more complete picture of the Reagan Administration and its impact on America. The following text is from the Seattle Post Intelligencer, Sunday, June 13, 2004.

"The Gipper had a certain goofiness about him that was impossible not to like. He told "war stories" borrowed from old movies with such sincerity you were sure he must have been there. He was a famous football hero ("win this one for the Gipper") and also a handsome cowboy depicted on horseback in his 1980 campaign posters (but without his six-shooters).

"He taught wacky science lessons (trees are a leading source of air pollution) and delivered many dewy-eyed tributes to American heroes, some plucked from yesterday's headlines, some recycled from his rheumy memories of World War I. Whether you came to canonize the man or ridicule him, he was always great material. Historians, I think, will someday rank him right up there with Warren Harding.

"Reagan was a fabulist. He told stories - often charming, sometimes loony - in which sentimental images triumphed over facts, warmth over light. So it is entirely appropriate today that the major media, draped in mourning, are solemnly fictionalizing his presidency. Reagan spun them around brilliantly, used the White House reporters and cameras as hapless props in his melodrama, ignored the tough questions and stuck unyieldingly to his scripted version of reality.

"This was partly conviction, partly the discipline of an "old pro" movie actor. It appears to have worked with the press. Their memorials to the "Ronald Reagan story" sound more like his fables than the events I witnessed.

"What's left out? For one thing, a chilling meanness lurked at the core of Reagan's political agenda (always effectively concealed by the affability), and he used this meanness like a razor blade to advance his main purpose - delegitimizing the federal government. Race was one cutting edge, poverty was another. His famous metaphor - the "welfare queen" who rode around in her Cadillac collecting food stamps - was perfectly pitched to the smoldering social resentments but also a clever fit with his broader economic objectives. Stop wasting our money on those lazy, shiftless (and, always unspoken, black) people. Get government off our backs, encourage the strong, and forget the weak. In case any white guys missed the point, Reagan opened his 1980 campaign in Neshoba County, Mississippi, where three civil rights workers had been murdered in the 1960s. His speech extolled states' rights. The tone was sunny optimism.

"The chemistry worked partly because it coincided with a historical shift already under way. Beyond movie scripts, Reagan was authentic in his convictions – he brought the flint-hearted libertarian doctrines of Hayek and Friedman to Washington and put a smiling face on the market orthodoxy of "every man for himself."

"Democrats had lost their energy and inventiveness, they were associated with 20 years of contentious reforms, turmoil and conflict (and sought relief, not by rebuilding their popular base with new ideas, but by cozying up to the business lobbies). In the end, the only folks who got truly liberated by Reaganomics were the same people who had financed his rise in politics, the Daddy Warbucks moguls from California and corporate behemoths like General Electric.

"Reagan's theory was really "trickle down" economics borrowed from the Republican 1920s (Harding-Coolidge-Hoover) and renamed "supply side." Cut tax rates for the wealthy; everyone else will benefit. As Reagan's budget director David Stockman confided to me at the time, the supply-side rhetoric "was always a Trojan horse to bring down the top rate." Many middle-class and poor citizens figured it out, even if reporters did not.

"Reagan's great political accomplishment was ideological – propelling the ascendancy of the right – but the actual governing results always looked more like hoary old interest-group politics. Wealthy individuals, corporate and financial interests got extraordinary benefits (tax reductions and deregulation) while the bottom half got whacked whenever an opportunity arose. His original proposition – cut taxes regressively, double military spending, shrink government and balance the federal budget – looked cockeyed from the start. Yet when the logic self-destructed in practice, conservatives were remarkably content, since they had delivered the boodle to the right clients.

"After my notorious account of Reagan's economic failure, based on my conversations with Stockman, was published in the December 1981 Atlantic Monthly, the Gipper likened me to John Hinckley, the would-be assassin who shot him. So much for Mr. Nice Guy.

"Both parties would spend the next 20 years cleaning up after the Gipper's big mistake. They collaborated in an ongoing politics of bait and switch – raising taxes massively on working people through the Social Security payroll tax while continuing to cut taxes for the more affluent and to whittle down government aid for anyone else.

"The Gipper had taught Washington an important new technique for governing – how to fog regressive tax cuts past the general public without arousing voter retribution (the media can be counted on to assist). The trickery continues to succeed. Pre-Reagan politics used to address various economic inequities. The great injustice confronted by George W. Bush was the estate tax on millionaires.

"Reagan's stubborn optimism did refresh the national spirit, no question, and it certainly powered his political successes. He gave us a television-era remake of Warren Harding's "return to normalcy."

"But in hindsight, I have come to think that the illusions fostered by his sunny messages perhaps did the gravest economic damage. Things were not normal; they were deteriorating and leading toward a chasm of growing inequalities. The rending of the American middle class, the stagnation of industrial wages, the relentless loss of U.S. manufacturing – these great wounds to general prosperity were all visible during the Reagan era, but instead of addressing them honestly, his policies further aggravated the consequences.

"The Gipper insisted, no doubt sincerely, that it was "morning again in America." People wanted to believe this, and politicians of both parties learned from his cue– wave the flag and avoid bad news. Ronald Reagan launched the great era of false triumphalism that continues to this day among American leadership. The current generation lacks his charm and is therefore less successful at hiding the truth."

Senate adjourned until the call of the President by unanimous consent at the request of the Chair.
