Statement by Senate Majority Leader Ginny Burdick on SCOTUS Janus v. AFSCME Decision

SALEM – Oregon Senate Majority Leader Ginny Burdick, D-Portland, released the following statement today regarding the Supreme Court’s ruling in the Janus v. AFSCME case:

“The rights of workers across the country are under attack. Labor unions give workers a voice for fair treatment in the workplace. Allowing workers to unite gives everyday Americans a louder voice to be heard. That is an important counterweight to the outsized influence of the powerful few. This decision harms workers everywhere – whether they belong to unions or not – in their ability to achieve the American dream of a living wage, retirement security, health care and the ability to care for loved ones.”
