Oregon Senate Republicans Willing to Return March 8

SALEM, Ore. – Today, the Oregon Senate Republicans announce they are willing to return to the Capitol on Sunday, March 8 with the purpose to pass emergency budget bills.

Senate Republican Leader Herman Baertschiger, Jr. (R-Grants Pass) issued the following statement:

“After a tumultuous session, Senate Republicans are willing to attend the Sunday floor session to pass emergency budget bills, for example, the relief for flood victims in Eastern Oregon. The intent of the short session was to make budget adjustments, and that is what we expect to work on while being fiscally responsible with the hard-earned taxpayer dollars.”
