Senate Republicans to Return Sunday, March 8

SALEM, Ore. – The Oregon Senate Republicans will return to the Capitol on Sunday, March 8 ready to pass the budget bills that the short session was intended for. Yesterday, Democrats killed all the budget bills by focusing on cap and trade.

Senate Republican Leader, Herman Baertschiger Jr. (R-Grants Pass) issued the following statement:

“As promised, my caucus and I will be ready to work on March 8 to pass the bills the short session was intended for. The focus all along should have been on the budget bills, not cap and trade. It amazes me how the Democrats do not take any responsibility for the failure of the session. Let’s get back to the purpose of the short session.”

Senator Baertschiger held a press conference following the announcement of the end of session. View it here.
