Baertschiger: “Mr. President, I’m going to ask you a question. Is this a glimpse into Oregon’s future?”

SALEM, Or. – Tuesday, Senate Republican Leader Herman Baertschiger, Jr., R-Grants Pass, made a floor speech citing statistics coming from France following 18 weeks of continuous violent protests over high energy costs. In Oregon, the majority party is pushing House Bill 2020, a so-called “clean energy jobs” bill that will increase energy costs throughout the state and cut thousands of good paying manufacturing jobs.

Baertschiger ended his floor speech with a question for Senate President Peter Courtney, D-Salem,: “Mr. President, I’m going to ask you a question. Is this a glimpse into Oregon’s future?”
