Senate Republican Leader Statement on Governor's Budget

Salem, ORE. – Today, Governor Kate Brown released a wish list of state budget ideas that relies on assistance from the federal government.

Senate Republican Leader Fred Girod (R-Lyons) issued a statement:

“Governor Kate Brown’s proposal is a ship without a rudder. She panders to political interests but fails to support all hard-working Oregonians.

“Governor Brown demands Congress send Oregon money, however, millions of funds from the first federal coronavirus relief package have gone unspent. Money from the federal government has limitations, and there is no guarantee that federal money will go towards the holes left in the Governor’s budget. Clearly, the Governor has been asleep at the wheel.”
