Senate Republican Leader Statement on Third Special Session

SALEM, Ore. – Today, Senate Republican Leader Fred Girod (R-Lyons) issued a statement about the upcoming Special Session, slated for December 21:

“The third special session will give needed relief to hurting Oregonians. Proposed legislation includes COVID-19 liability protections for schools, a critical first step to get schools reopened, support for renters and landlords, as well as technical changes in the restaurant industry that will help hard-working Oregonians and small businesses.

“There is significant work to be done in the upcoming 2021 long session, and Republicans will continue to advocate for liability protections for our health care system in the coming weeks.”
