Republican Leaders Deliver Rebuttal to Governor Kotek's State of the State Address, Offer Alternative Vision for Oregon

SALEM, Ore. – This afternoon, Senate Republican Leader Daniel Bonham (R-The Dalles) and House Republican Leader Christine Drazan (R-Canby) released a video response to Governor Tina Kotek’s State of the State address and outlined their vision for Oregon. The leaders emphasized the failures of the current administration and reiterated the Republican commitment to solutions that address the issues Oregonians care most about: affordability, housing, homelessness, and education.

Following the conclusion of the Governor’s speech, Leaders Bonham and Drazan issued the following statement:

“Governor Kotek's speech today was uninspiring, lacked a compelling vision, and demonstrated an inability to tackle the challenges Oregonians elected her to solve. Oregonians shouldn't settle for the status quo and today we heard a governor whose approach to leadership is managing mediocrity without any measurable outcomes.”
