Senate Republican Leader Bruce Starr Congratulates Christine Drazan on Appointment to Oregon Senate

SALEM, Ore. – Senate Republican Leader Bruce Starr (R-Dundee) today congratulated Christine Drazan on her appointment to the Oregon Senate, representing District 26 following the resignation of former Senator Daniel Bonham (R-The Dalles).

“Christine Drazan is a proven leader with a deep understanding of the challenges facing Oregon families,” said Leader Starr. “She has shown time and again that she’s willing to stand up for her community and fight for a better path forward for our state. Our caucus is thrilled to welcome her to the Senate, and we’re confident she’ll serve her constituents with the same integrity, energy, and commitment that have defined her public service.”

Drazan, who currently represents District 51 in the Oregon House of Representatives, was appointed by the Boards of Commissioners from Clackamas, Multnomah, Hood River, and Wasco Counties to serve the remainder of Bonham’s term, which runs through January 2027.
