Senate Republicans Mourn the Passing of Representative Hòa Nguyễn

SALEM, Ore. – The Senate Republican Caucus joins in mourning the loss of Representative Hòa Nguyễn, who passed away this morning after a courageous battle with cancer.

“We are all deeply saddened to learn of Representative Nguyễn’s passing,” said Senate Republican Leader Bruce Starr (R-Dundee). “She faced her battle with cancer with grace, strength, and an unwavering dedication to the people she served. Her kindness and commitment to making a difference will be remembered by everyone who had the privilege of working with her. Our prayers are with her loved ones, colleagues, and all whose lives she touched throughout her public service.”
