Ferrioli statement on Gilliam's resignation

SALEM, Ore.-Following news of state Rep. Vic Gilliam, R-Silverton, deciding to step away from the legislature, Senate Republican Leader Ted Ferrioli offered the following statement:

"Rep. Gilliam is a role model for other lawmakers and while he has been recognized by everyone in statements today as a true statesman, there is no way to adequately capture who he is in a press release. Vic is authentic, he is diligent, he is a good man. Senate Republicans thank Rep. Gilliam for his service and commitment to Oregonians and for everything he contributed to the history and future of our state."
