DITCH THE SWITCH: Daylight Saving Time

Twice a year, people across our state participate in what has been called “the modern world’s dumbest ritual.”

The semi-annual changing of clocks is an antiquated and disruptive practice to everyone who has to get up early for work.

My bill, Senate Bill 320, to keep the Daylight Saving Time will give Oregonians the chance to vote on their ballot to ditch the time switch. If we do we could increase productivity and improve people’s lives all across the state.

The hearing is scheduled to be heard in the Senate General Government Committee on Mar. 12 at 8:00 am in Hearing Room B.
