Senate to Hold Next Floor Session on Monday

SALEM – Today, Senate President Rob Wagner (D-Lake Oswego) adjourned the Senate until Monday, May 15, at 10:30 a.m. His decision to adjourn until Monday will allow for ongoing conversations between a bipartisan, bicameral group of lawmakers about how they can deliver for the people of Oregon this legislative session.

President Wagner is releasing the following statement:

“I hope this agreement to pause Senate floor sessions will create room for progress. I will continue to engage in good faith conversations to move our state forward.”
